

Lord, Bring Your Mercy

p. 1 of 2
[Key of D]

D
Verse 1 Lord, bring Your mercy to this man I see,
Lord, bring Your mercy to the woman in front of me,
None of us deserve it, but we can ask it, so
Lord, bring Your mercy to me.

D
Verse 2 Lord, bring Your kingdom to this man I see,
Lord, bring Your kingdom to the children in front of me,
None of us deserve it, but we can ask it, so
Lord, bring Your kingdom to me.

D
Verse 3 Lord, bring Your Spirit to this woman I see,
Lord, bring Your Spirit to the people in front of me,
None of us deserve it, but we can ask it, so
Lord, bring Your Spirit to me.

D
Verse 4 Lord, bring Your healing to this man I see,
Lord, bring Your healing to the woman in front of me,
None of us deserve it, but we can ask it, so
Lord, bring Your healing to me.

D
Verse 5 Lord, bring Your peace to this man I see,
Lord, bring Your peace to the woman beside me,
None of us deserve it, but we can ask it, so
Lord, bring Your peace to me.

D
Verse 6 Lord, bring Your joy to this child I see,
Lord, bring Your joy to the women in front of me,
None of us deserve it, but we can ask it, so
Lord, bring Your joy to me.

D
Verse 7 Lord, bring Your glory to this man I see,
Lord, bring Your glory to the woman in front me,
None of us deserve it, but we can ask it, so
Lord, bring Your glory to me.

D
Verse 8 Lord, bring down Heaven to this man I see,
Lord, bring down Heaven to the woman in front of me,
None of us deserve it, but we can ask it, so
Bring a little Heaven to me.

D
Verse 9 Lord, bring Your mercy to this man I see,
Lord, bring Your mercy to the woman in front of me,
None of us deserve it, but we can ask it, so
Lord, bring Your mercy to me.
None of us deserve it, but we can ask it, so
Lord, bring Your mercy to me.
Lord, bring Your mercy to me.