A
On the road past the County Line Grocery,
A D
There's a hole where we swim and we fish.
E
And right past the County Line Grocery,
E A
Lives a woman that every guy wishes was his,
A
And she shops at the County Line Grocery,
A D
You can see her there some afternoons,
E
If you hang out at the County Line Grocery,
E A
You might hear that she's mentioned you,
A
She said, "I saw that cute guy, and I think he was flirting,
A D
"He so shy that I don't really know,
E
"And I think that I've seen him go down by the river,
E A
"He's a boy I've seen swimming without any clothes
A
"And I shop at the County Line Grocery,
A D
"And I think all the guys tell each other I do,
E
"So I'll shop at the County Line Grocery,
E A
"When I'm ready to find me a man, say 'I do',

A
“And if not at the County Line Grocery.

A D
“Then I’ll shop at that old fishin’ hole.

E
“Cause I can hide there in the bushes,

E D A
“And see what a girl needs to know.

A
“Then go back to the County Line Grocery.

A D
“And I’ll shop ‘till I drop a big clue,

E
“That it’s not at the County Line Grocery,

E A
“That I want to be hangin’ with you.”

A
Swimmin’ is fine when the fish go away,

A D
But I swear I heard gigglin’ in the bushes today

E
I think that somebody’s checkin’ us out,

E D A
Better put on our clothes in case someone’s about.

A
Let’s go back to the County Line Grocery,

A D
Where I’m hopin’ she’ll drop a big clue

E
That it’s not at the County Line Grocery,

E A
That I want to be hangin’ with you.
