

I Put My Boots Closer to Your Door

p. 1 of 1
[Key of G]

Chorus

G Dm
I put my boots closer to your door
G Dm
So I could sneak across your hardwood floor.
G Dm
I put my boots closer to your door,
G Dm
So I could leave real quiet across your hardwood floors.
Am
If leavin' you was easy, I'd be stompin' across the floor,
G C G
But I put my boots closer to your door.

Verse 1

Am
These boots are made for walkin', not for sneakin' around,
Am C G
If I'll be leavin' you tonight, I won't be makin' a sound.
Am
These boots are made for dancin', that's what got me here,
F G
But the next dance is leavin' without wakin' you dear, so

[Repeat Chorus]

Verse 2

Am
I said the next dance is leavin' without wakin' you dear,
Am C G
But if the morning comes it wouldn't be so bad to be here.
Am
These boots are made for leavin' standing by your door,
F G
But another dance in the morning could be what they're waitin' for.

[Repeat Chorus]
