

Lord, Magnify Your Light

(A Candle Burns)

p. 1 of 2

[Key of A]

VERSE 1

A candle burns, a candle burns, a candle burns, a candle burns.

There is light in the house, light in the house, light in the house, light in the house.

And then the candle burns so very low, the light is feeble now.

Not that the candle has done any evil or wrong, but still the light is feeble now.

Then the vision changes to an old tarnished lamp,

The oil has flowed, the light has shone.

But now the wick is drawing from an empty well, and the darkness does encroach.

I hear a cry unto the Lord of the house, "Come trim my wick, refill my oil."

And then He comes, His essence filling the house, He is the light, He is the oil.

CHORUS

Lord, magnify the light of Your grace and glory, I burn so feeble now.

Lord, You must be the light, shine Your grace and glory, I burn so feeble now.

Lord, bring me to the light of Your grace and glory,

Refill Your oil, re-light Your fire,

Remove the smoldering darkness from my eyes, Lord, magnify Your light!

VERSE 2

A Spirit burns, a Spirit burns, a Spirit burns, a Spirit burns.
There is light in the house, light in the house, light in the house, light in the house.
And then the Spirit burns so very low, the light is feeble now.
Not that the Spirit is lacking any grace or power, but still the light is feeble now.
I hear a cry unto the Lord of the house, "Come trim my wick, refill my oil."
And then He comes, His Spirit filling the house, He is the light, He is the oil.

CHORUS

Lord, magnify the light of Your grace and glory, I burn so feeble now.
Lord, You must be the light, shine Your grace and glory, I burn so feeble now.
Lord, bring me to the light of Your grace and glory,
Refill Your oil, re-light Your fire,
Remove the smoldering darkness from my eyes, Lord, magnify Your light!
Lord, magnify Your light!
Lord, magnify Your light!
Lord, magnify Your light!
Lord, magnify Your light!
