Road to Understand

[Key of A]

For my Mother's 80th birthday

Verse 1

Bm D A
Lord, I need a song in my heart today,
Bm D A
Lord, I need Your hand to guide my way
E A
A child lies sick in a bed in Austin,
E A
So I travel a road I've been on often.
Bm D A
I wake up in a motel where I've stayed before,
Bm D A
I see clouds and rain ahead, looking out the door.
E D A
So I close the door again and kneel and pray,
E D A
"Lord, I need Your strength for this rainy day."
E D A
I start out in the car and the road's the same,
E D A
I travel for awhile and I speak Your name.

Chorus

A D A
I see You now, breaking through the clouds with a ray of sun,
A D A
I see You now, holding back the rain 'till the day is done,
A D A
I hear You now, telling me that I am in Your hand,
E A^{Maj7}
I've traveled this old road so many times and still You lead me,
D A
Driving on a road I understand.

Copyright (Words and Music)
June 2005 Jeffrey Brent Clifton
www.jbcmusic.com

Verse 2

E D A
Lord, the road ahead is filled with clouds,
E D A
Lord, my time ahead is filled with doubts
E D A
I travel on a road I've never seen before,
E D A
But I know that Your hand will lead me through the storm.

Chorus

A D A
I see You now, breaking through the clouds with a ray of sun,
A D A
I see You now, holding back the rain 'till the day is done,
A D A
I hear You now, telling me that I am in Your hand,
E A^{Maj7}
I travel a new road I've never seen before and will You lead me,
D A
Driving on a road to understand?

Copyright June-2005 Jeffrey Brent Clifton
www.jbcmusic.com